Description

Burro Ville is a new space for Rural Tourism and Nature Tourism in the Algarve.

It can be found in the Western Algarve, on a site called Descampadinho, on a property of 89 hectares of cork oak forest, between sea and mountains where the rolling hills open onto sweeping landscapes, and donkey rides allow the discovery of successive places of extraordinary beauty.

For rural tourism accommodation the property has available seven houses, with one or two bedrooms, which keep the rural architecture with contemporary features and comfort, according to principles of sustainability, ergonomics and functionality.

It should be noted that the unit is accessible, so everyone can enjoy the surrounding beauty, the tranquility that one experiences here, and also the donkey rides through the grounds or in the ring.

As noted, the protagonists in the farm are Mirandese donkeys! At the moment there are 17, three of them born recently. It is a privilege to contribute to the preservation of this species at risk of extinction.

Burro Ville also offers space for events such as birthday parties, baptisms, workshops, MICE for small groups, therapies.
